Teachers Combine Action & Music

Learning by doing is not restricted to school children. (Above), first and second grade teachers of Appomattox Primary School act out a song as led by Mrs. Lena Long (center, facing camera), music supervisor, Va. State Dept. of Education. New methods in music teaching were a part of a workshop Monday for 1st and 2nd grade teachers and 3rd and4th grade teachers meeting in separate sessions to add to music repertory and teaching skills. Taking part were (from left): Mrs. Virginia Cyrus, Mrs. Bobbi Cook, Mrs. Long, Mrs. Kathryn Alvis, Mrs. Carolyn Coleman, Mrs. Sarah Morris and Mrs. Calvert Poole. Not shown: Mrs. Shirley Forest, Mrs. Virginia Goode, Mrs. Henrietta Johnson, Mrs. Diane Scruggs, Mrs. Lou Rogers, Mrs. Sallie Martin and Mrs. Wanda Simpson.

ATTEND CHINCHILLA COOP SHOW

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sperry attended the annual show of the Empress Chinchilla Cooperative held in Charlottesville on Sunday. The Sperrys, who have raised chinchilla and sold both pelts and live animals, did not have any chinchillas entered in the show Sunday, but some entries from their original herd were shown and were awarded prizes.

Austin Hallway, a past national president and member of the national board of directors of the Empress Chinchilla Coop, was one of the judges. Mr. Hallway has visited Appomattox frequently.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Apschinkat of Appomattox announce the birth of a daughter, Liela Faith, born Thursday, Jan. 20 at Virginia Baptist Hospital. She weighed six pounds and 12 ounces at birth. The Apschinkats are parents of another daughter, Tessa, three years old.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Apschinkat, of Franklin, Kentucky. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Twyman, of Canmer, Kentucky.

COUNTY PROJECT DISCUSSED BY LOCAL CHAPTER

The Delta Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Richard Bartell, the president. Program topic was the current "Rat Control" project in Appomattox County. Discussion leader was Mrs. Ray Noble.

Plans for the upcoming Valentine Ball on Feb. 11 were made.

Sorority members were invited to the Leadership Training program set for Monday, Jan. 31 at the Rescue Squad building. Leader will be VPI Extension specialist, Miss Ethel Grubbs.

Plans for coming weeks for the sorority include a pot luck supper, a square dance and a dinner-theater outing. The sorority will be furnishing sandwiches, desserts and beverages at the auction sale Feb. 5 at Appomattox.

Clipped Wings To Hold Meeting Sat.

The Central Virginia Chapter of Clipped Wings, United Air Lines Stewardess Alumnae, Inc will hold a winter meeting Saturday, Jan. 29 at 11:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Martha Ann Wilson, Rt. 1, Appomattox.

Ex-stewardesses from throughout the state of Virginia will be attending the meeting.

Mrs. Dorothy Richards of Charlottesville will present an award received by the Central Virginia Chapter from Dr. Philip Horn, executive director of the National Association for Retarded Children.

The award is being given for outstanding service by Clipped Wings to the Association for the Retarded. In 1971 Clipped Wings donated approximately $6,500 to retarded children bring ing the grand total contributed by Clipped Wings to well over a quarter of a million dollars.

The Central Virginia Chapter has its share of the fund through many projects, sale of key chain bracelets, stationery and a booth at the Charity Bazaar in Charlottesville.

All former Capital hostesses and United Air Lines stewardesses are invited to the meeting.

Mrs. Wilson, wife of airlines pilot John Wilson, is an instructor at Appomattox Intermediate School.

Local People In Area Listing Of Year's Events

The late Dr. W. Twyman Williams, former pastor Appomattox Court House group of Presbyterian churches and a former pastor, also of College Church at Hampden-Sydney, was among the well known people listed in a recap of events of 1971, an annual feature of the Farmville Herald.

Dr. Williams passed away, November 10, 1971.

Lions of Appomattox were praised for their cooperation with the Farmville Lions and Dillwyn in raising $6,000 toward construction of recreation facilities at the State Hospital for the Blind and Handicapped. A portion of the radio appeal on Station WFLG originated in the offices of the Times Virginian.

Other listings included the name of Mrs. James C. Rea, Jr. of "Amptmill Farm", Cumberland, who was installed president of the Virginia Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association on April 26.

Dance Will Honor Queen

The annual Delta Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Valentine Ball on Friday, Feb. 11 will honor the chapter's Queen this year with a Suitable theme, "Camelot." Her identity is a mystery until announcement is made at the dance.

Queen of the chapter is a member voted upon by members both for beauty and accomplishment in meeting personal and sorority goals.

The queen will be announced during the evening dance from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Avalon. The House of Commons will furnish music and a buffet supper will be served at the close of the dance. Ticket sale is limited to a "first come, first sold" basis.

Former Queens of the sorority selected at other Valentine Balls, include Connie McDermond, Carolyn Davis, Wanda Sprigade, Janet Noble and Mary Bartelt.

SPAGHETTI SUPPER

The Appomattox Intermediate School PTA ways and means committee, headed by Mrs. Crawford L. Davidson, has announced plans for a spaghetti supper to be held Saturday, Feb. 19 in the cafeteria.

UDC Hears Three Speakers

Members of the Appomattox Chapter, United Daughter of the Confederacy, meeting Thursday evening at Maude's for their annual dinner honoring Confederate heroes Lee, Jackson and Maury, expressed disappointment that the scheduled speaker could not appear, but they were rewarded, otherwise, in the substitute speakers who presented historical papers and facts of interest.

Mr. Jerry A. Burke, Appomattox businessman and retired superintendent of Appomattox schools, found that he could not be present. Three chapter members volunteered to take part of the evening: Mrs. Rachel F. Lawson will spend the week end with them and then return home.

Historical facts of interest were presented Thursday by three speakers (above) as the Appomattox Chapter of Daughters of the Confederacy, held their annual dinn Maude's to honor three Confederate heroes, Lee, Jackso Maury. Presiding at the dinner were Mrs. A.J. Zastro (from right) with speakers (from left): Mrs. Lucille Fe Mrs. Rachel F. Lawson and (far right), Mrs. Wiley M More than forty members and guests were present.

She also hid a ham inside a chimney so that hungry soldiers could not commandeer it.

Mrs. Ferrell's reading concerns the alleged revival of Robert E. Lee's mother, who was given up for dead, enclosed in a glass lidded coffin, only to revive after four days, much to the consternation of at least one man who heard faint calls for "help" from within Mrs. Lee's coffin.

The account was submitted by Frank Palumbo, of Chicago, who has visited Appomattox from time to time and who has a museum of Civil War relics in the north.

Mrs. Morris' paper was a copy of the last will and testament of Mary Washington, mother of Gen. Washington and lists exact beneficiaries of such valuables as "My best bedstead," a "best looking glass" and "iron kitchen furniture."

Members and guests present included Mr. and Mrs. C Plunkett, Miss Diane Fe Miss Dale Cyrus, Mrs. ble, Mrs. Wiley Morris and Mrs. D. H. Cyrus, Mrs. S. B. Marshall, Mrs. J. W. Childers, Mrs. O. W. Martin, Jr., Mrs. H. H. Caldwell, Mrs. E. J. Hillsman, Mrs House, Mrs. Calvin Bell Mrs. A. J. Zastrow, Mrs Stimpson, Mrs. Curry Mrs. Tilden Lee, Mrs. Harry Reynolds, Mrs. L Doss, Mrs. Rachel Mrs. Lena Eversole, Mr Fannie Phelps, Mrs. L Anderson, Mrs. Thelm erson, Mrs. Lucille Mrs. Mary Moore, Mrs. Cunningham.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hancock, Jr. and James cock, III of Rustburg Flora Belle Williams, Mrs. Jeannette Austin a aunt of Madison Heights.
